Beauty Hints

BEAUTIFUL HEELS.

First, your heels to be beautiful must be immaculate. That is, perfectly clean. Not only with the help of soap and water, but all of the callus must be removed. Get colloidal and soak the feet in this in a solution of warm water. Use a dull blade to get rid of the dead skin that will loosen. Then massage the feet with a good skin food which will soften the whole surface of the feet. Now rub them down with alcohol and they will be ready to take the next step, which is a fine dusting powder. Do this twice a week until you are really proud of your lovely, soft pink

KISSABLE LIPS

How few women keep their lips kissable after they reach a certain age. They ruin them by drawing them up tight into a buttonhole or twist them or draw them out into a thin hard line. Kiss-able lips are full, smooth, shapely.
Watch yours in the glass and see how unlovely your lips have come to be. You can change all this by making them take the shape you desire, then seeing to it that they keep this shape. Rouse them properly, smile occasionally and see to it that they always look kissable.

GOP WOMAN
NOMINATES DEWEY
FOR GOVERNOR.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 4. (ANP)—Last Monday when Thomas E. Dewey was nominated by acclamation for governor at the New York State Republican convention here, one of the nomination speeches was made by Miss Bertha Diggs of Buffalo Republican leader of her city. She received a great ovation when introduced by the chairman and her speech drew prolonged applause.

Mrs. Z. C. Solomon, Macon, Ga., the house guest of her son and laughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Solomon, 358 W. 25th st. Mrs. Solomon is a member of the faculty of the Macon City schools.

Miss Martha E. Horner, who has been house guest of Dr. and Mrs.
James Arthur Rainey in S. Ken-lock Park, Mo., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stevenson and baby have returned from vacationing at Fox Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Adams and niece, Eleanor Hawkins are visiting relatives in Newark and Columbus, O.

GRATEFUL PASTOR AND WIFE ARE NOW READY FOR WORK

Now that the vacation season is over and the people are bachome once morand are settle down to business, Jones Tabernacle is expecting these members and friends to be present Sunday to join in fellowship.

With this fine group of people who stayed home all summer and kept our services up to such high state of efficiency that we had no summer slump in our church.

Mrs. Moore and I use this method of thanking the people of our own congregation and our many friends of Indianapolis for the very full and complete preparation you made for our Vacation this year.

I shall always be grateful to you for this much-needed rest. We hope to express our gratitude in vigilant public service.

WORSHIP AT JONES TABER-NACLE, you will always leave feeling better.

I. ALBERT MOORE, Pastor.

Who's the ill hootie around the Elks Lodge 104 who's a lamb instead of a pig? I know and you know and you can't be a heppin' it! Who shed a bucket full of tears just for one sweet letter from you? And who opened up the Panama bar Labor Day morning and dood it and didn't dit a whippin' Oh boy! Wouldn't you like to know and if you do know, mum is the word!

Letters continue to be found on my desk! A card from Margaret Cobb who sez she's knockin' herself out in Windy City! A card from "Billy" Stewart who's Pvt. Meridith Stewart in the U. S. A. now informs us that he was at Ft. Harrison's reception center and tried to locate yours truly, but was unsuccessful so he dropped a line! He was being shipped out the same day and would write later. You will remember Billy for his remarkable lyric tenor voice in singing, "Summer-time" and Stardust at the Cotton Club and who formerly sang with Chick Carter's band and later with Step Wharton. Step is still somewhere in Motor City! Billy and Aquila Garcia don't believe in "I Do" anymore!

Gertrude Brown has returned from Lake Wawasee after a successful and enjoyable season along with Beatrice Moore, Elizabeth Walker, Ethel Davis, Norma Turner, and Anita Johnson. The boys in the 300 block will be returning next week sometime! Joe Johnson will be in port along with Edwards, Bill Sutton, Al Jenkins and the usual South Shore Inn crew! Of course the SQUARE WHO IS SOMEWHERE will be among that number also! — and here's a week's layout that's good enough for anybody's Sunday gal! Monday, you take her hunting! Tuesday, take her bowling; Wednesday, it's tuff enuff!
Thursday, sit back and relax! Friday, that's another day! Saturday, anything that comes and Sunday, she's still that Sunday gal! That's for the fellows with their zoot suits, drape-shapes, reat-pleats, stuff-cuffs and the Sunday gals!

How's this for traveling! Received a card from Dorothy (Thorne) Hutchinson, who's now residing in Hot Springs, Ark. A bout 630 miles, 500 of which she drove herself straight through in 19 hours and cost her only about $6.00 for gas and oil! Not bad, and good luck, Thorne!
The address is 341 Walnut street, in case you missed her and are interested in dropping her a line!

And now I've heard of plenty romances; love walking in, love walking out; love flying in and out of the window; a ticket-a-ticket, but doggone if I've heard of the kind of love that's sewed up all the way round. There's no rationing on this either and no priorities! But wouldn't you like to know who it is that's spending so much time in Terre Haute; if they don't get to Terre Haute, somebody comes here!
There's no limit to the telegrams, special deliveries, long distance ephone calls, the Indiana Railroad doesn't run fast enough, so they take the Greyhound and if that's too slow they hop a Big Four! All I can say is that Terre Haute used to hold some charm for me — you know on the banks of the Wabash, but this is more than I ever knew Terre Haute could afford, but if it ain't love, I betcha it'll be doing for a long long time before the truly real things comes along, and the real thing couldn't be any better than this! So, folks, that's the way it is, and it's love!

Rivers from Louisville stopped through the city last week for a few hours of playing with The Jackie P. Rivers was en route to Chicago and on his way back to Louisville, he visited again in the city.
Wm. Dover, The Jackie P's brother-in-law of Chicago was here also last week for a few hours. He is business agent of the Chicago Musicians Union. The Jackie P. Shine Lounge and Cleaning and Pressing shop will be further represented by a girls bowling team of which Marian Powell is treasurer. The group of girls who will be on the team have already received much praise and recognition for their spend bowling activities at the Fun Bowl! Watch for more news about these girls and the fine team!

Now next week, I think you can have those guest columnists that I promised you for this week! That's 30, and remember, flip me and flip me, but for heaven's sake don't drop me!
